

I am disgusted by the recent decision by Sinclair media to air an anti-Kerry documentary under the premise that a 5 week old piece can be disguised as news. This should be prohibited, or at the very least the FCC should take a closer look at allowing them to renew licenses. If we allow large companies that control the airwaves to attempt to manipulate elections through false advertising, where does it stop? Thank you for your time.